

Housing

Australian Christians recognizes the importance of housing affordability and home ownership for all Australians; especially younger Australians who in many cases have little hope of realizing this Australian dream.

We agree with Senator Bob Day's acknowledgment that this is not really about housing affordability but about 'land affordability' and would support policies that will provide the adequate and affordable supply of land required for new housing.